INCLUDED WITH RESERVATION

- Admission to Plimoth Plantation and Plimoth Grist Mill
- A fun and educational themed dinner
- An evening of hands-on activities
- Overnight in a heated classroom or gallery space
- A modern continental breakfast

ABOUT OUR PROGRAMS

WAMPANOAG OVERNIGHT (minimum of 20 people)

Explore, create and learn about Wampanoag culture with a Native Museum Educator! Your group will learn about Wampanoag culture from a Native perspective. You will share a Wampanoag feast, visit a wetu (a Wampanoag home), experience 17th-century Native life with a hands-on artifact and game activity, and use traditional materials and techniques to craft something you can take home.

COLONIAL OVERNIGHT (minimum of 20 people)

What was life like for a Pilgrim in Plimoth Colony? After eating a Colonial New England dinner, you will experience an English child's life by writing with a quill pen and playing some of the games children would have played in the 1620s. Take a nighttime walk with your Museum Educator to discover the sights, sounds, smells and stories of Plimoth Colony after dark (weather permitted).

17 CENTURY NEW ENGLAND OVERNIGHT (minimum of 40 people)

Discover 17th-century Plymouth life from both Colonial and Wampanoag perspectives during our bi-cultural overnight! Your group will share a meal of traditional Wampanoag foods and Colonial recipes. You will experience each culture by playing 17th century games and creating something to take home with you. Finally, take a walk through the grounds with your Museum Educator and discover the nighttime sights, sounds and stories of New Plimoth/Patuxet (weather permitted).

BOOKING INFORMATION

- o There may be other activities at the Museum that evening or other groups staying overnight. All groups have separate sleeping areas and evening activities, but may be sharing dining facilities.
- o If you need to cancel your overnight, we ask that you do so at least seven business days prior to your event date. By doing so, your full payment may be transferred to an alternate date. If you cancel within seven business days of your event; you are able to transfer your total payment minus the 50% non-refundable deposit to an alternate date only.
