

Come explore Early American History in the region where it happened

THE NEW ENGLAND HISTORIC SITE COLLABORATIVE

Nine New England historic sites, museums, and libraries are collaborating on a series of weeklong teacher training programs that offer a variety of hands-on, intensive and engaging experiences that explore:

- ◆ Colonial Encounters
- ◆ Slavery and Reform
- ◆ The American Revolution
- ◆ 19th Century Industry

Each program contains visits to these historic sites where you interact with

- ◆ Distinguished scholars studying these subjects
- ◆ Museum and library curators
- ◆ Original primary source artifacts, documents and images
- ◆ Teacher-tested lesson plans and curricula that you can use with your own students
- ◆ Interactive activities that allow you to experience history as it happened in the places where it originally occurred.

These programs offer a unified thematic approach by institutions with extensive experience serving K-12 teachers and students. All the coordination between sites is done for you. Complete packages are available that can be tailored to suit your needs and your budgets.

For further information including pricing please visit www.americanantiquarian.org/nehc

Deerfield
Teacher's Center

Participating
institutions include:

American Antiquarian
Society

Deerfield Teachers'
Center at the
Pocumtuck Valley
Memorial Association

Historic New England

Massachusetts
Historical Society

Mystic Seaport

Old Sturbridge Village

Plimoth Plantation

Rhode Island Historical Society

Tsongas Industrial History Center and
Lowell National Park